HALLOWEEN

CATAPULT STEM

Sketch your pattern with a marker, leaving enough space between dots so holes won't overlap. Start by carving a hole in the bottom of your pumpkin. Remove the cut-out pieces and repeat as desired.SHOP COOKIE CUTTERS 7 of 55 Candy Holder Pumpkin Craft a unique — and useful — front porch display with a large real or faux pumpkin. That way, you can safely store candy without covering it in the pumpkin's natural goop. For the final touch, add a spider to your web! 3 of 55 Drilled Pattern Pumpkin Decorate your house with simple, yet elegant pumpkin designs. 29 of 55 Friendly Ghost Pumpkin Instead of going to the pumpkin patch, take a trip to the grocery store and stock up on butternut squash to make this friendly hunch. Since there's three pumpkins to carve, divide the carving duties up between family members to save time and let's face it, stress. Add rhinestones for the eyes, thread for the whiskers and pom pom noses with a hot glue gun. 27 of 55 Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil Pumpkin Trio Nobody — not even this pumpkin trio — will shame your candy intake on Halloween. Watch our video and learn how to make menacing bug filled lanterns, paper pumpkins, balloon owls, scary spiders and even house themed banners. Then, you can use a piece of paper to draw a pattern that you like or print a design template to lay on your pumpkin. Before the festivities begin, fill it with candy and write a message with chalk. You can even turn it into a competition by challenging party-goers to complete the puzzle for prizes. ... Get the tutorial at Woman's Day » 22 of 55 Honeycomb Pumpkin Go for a naturally sweet design by carving a large honeycomb pattern across the pumpkin's front. Follow a classic pumpkin face design, and then make its features pop with candy corn in assorted shapes and sizes. Download here Download here Download here Download here 1 of 55 Kitten Pumpkin If you want to do less carving but still have a show-stopping pumpkin, then this Kitten pumpkin is pur-fect! Mini Kitten Pumpkins: Take your mini pumpkins and spray paint them black with two coats of paint. Paint the entire pumpkin with black chalk paint and let dry. From watchful owls, to the Sorting Hat, to Hogwarts castle itself, you can download and print these templates and be ready for a Wizarding World Hallowe'en. Carve life-size bony limbs into stacked pumpkins to really make a statement (especially if you place them around a faux gravestone). Download your Hogwarts crest here Download your Snitch here! This video involves sharp tools, so adults should always supervise children Finally, if you're looking for even more pumpkin inspiration, we have some brilliant templates thanks to Hogwarts Mystery and Jam City. If that's not enough, you can also download step-by-step guides as well as both templates from our website. RELATED: How to Carve the Perfect Pumpkin 8 of 55 Candy Coated Pumpkin Can't figure out what to do with all of that candy corn? Then, thread a needle with a metallic string and tie a knot on the end. Then, use an awl punch to punch a series of holes within the moon shape, keeping the holes a minimum of 1/2" apart. You can even fill the pumpkins with fluff to look like smoke, okay, candy. Then dress it up with parsnip nose, hair made out of a twigs, and witch's hat. 30 of 55 Hen and Chicks Pumpkin Even if you haven't made your farm dreams come true (yet), you can play pretend with these pumpkins decked out with hen and chick designs. 17 of 55 Candy Land Pumpkin Open up a few of your candy bags early and steal a couple of pieces to create this adorable house outfitted with gum drops, peppermints, candy corn, and more.Get the tutorial at Woman's Day » 18 of 55 Flower Power Pumpkin This idea is perfect for the family that wants to make a big statement without spending a ton of time creating their design. Finish it off by placing LED string lights inside to bask in your handiwork's glow. Fill the pumpkin with crumbled newspaper and nestle the kitten pumpkins on top. Fill the cut-outs with chicken wire to match your home's rustic aesthetic. First, mark a hole on the top half of the pumpkin and carefully cut along the line with a pumpkin carving set. Punch it out with a power drill and various bits. Or if you fancy a challenge, you should give the Hogwarts crest a go. For the ears, you can cut out triangles from velour paper, attach toothpicks to them with a hot glue gun, and stick the ears into the tops of the pumpkin.Main Pumpkin: Begin by carving a circle on the top of your pumpkin and taking out all the seeds. We have five completely different crafts for you to get stuck into. 11 of 55 Monster Pumpkin When all else fails, go for an oh-so-scary monster look with white paint, a zipper mouth and a forehead scar. Fill with ice and decorate it with faux spiders, and you've got the spookiest drink display on the block. Here's a roundup of all the creepy creations that you need for this spooky season... If you enjoy nothing more than filling your home with Hallowe'en creations, you needn't look any further than our Make it Magic video. Repeat this step until you have all your holes filled. Wipe away the chalk outline, then poke faux flower stems into the holes.SHOP AWL PUNCHESRELATED: Beautiful Painted Pumpkin Ideas 21 of 55 Peekaboo Pumpkin Double the pumpkins, double the fun: Place a smaller gourd — white works best if you want it to mimic a skull — inside a big orange pumpkin for a pleasant surprise. 15 of 55 Zombie Skeleton Pumpkins The walking dead are rising up — in your lawn, that is. Just trace the bottom of a glass bowl or storage container to ensure that it'll fit inside. Put your extra Halloween candy to good use by decking out your pumpkin's carved face. SHOP CHICKEN WIRE SHOP 'SKELETON HANDS 28 of 55 Jigsaw Puzzle Pumpkin This adorable pumpkin doubles as a kid-friendly activity that'll actually keep them entertained. 26 of 55 Witch Pumpkin If you can't get your hands on a green heirloom pumpkin, paint a regular orange one in a muted green hue for a similar look. Take a length of string and start by tying it to one of the crisscrossed strings you just created about 1 inch from the outside of the hole. Continue making a spiral by knotting as you hit the crisscross that is already there, continuing in a circular swirl. 12 of 55 Carved Pumpkin Bowl Cut a large pumpkin in half and scoop the insides out of the bottom portion. SHOP RUBBER SNAKES 25 of 55 Pumpkin Candy Dispenser This homemade beauty beats out any store-bought candy bowl. Although it's a more light-hearted take on Greek mythology, this version of Medusa carries the same consequences: If you gaze into her eyes, you might turn into stone. Use a toothpick or awl to poke holes as a guide to where you need to drill. Leave a few honeycombs intact and paint them yellow to look like the real thing. SHOP STRING LIGHTS 6 of 55 Starry Fright Pumpkin Use a rubber mallet or a dishcloth-covered hammer to gently pound a cookie cutter into a hollowed pumpkin. Now, it's up for you to decide: Is it more of a Glinda or Elphaba? Get the tutorial at Country Living » 23 of 55 Sweet Scarecrow Pumpkin This candy-filled scarecrow is way too sweet to scare away any trick-or-treaters. 20 of 55 Flower Moon Pumpkin If your pumpkin carving skills could use some work, rely on fake flowers and paint to disguise any mistakes. Depending on how much time you have, carve a single Casper or give him a few friends to keep him company. Watch as the Pumpkin Freak shows you how to carve your very own magical designs in his video tutorials. FromFrom pumpkin carving to making your own eerie lanterns, there are plenty of excellent wizarding Hallowe'en crafts that you can try at home. Complete the over-the-top design with a full moon (a Ping-Pong ball that you can easily hang from a thin string). 13 of 55 Tricks & Treats Pumpkins 14 of 55 Smiling Pumpkins Keep it simple — but still fun — by having each family member carve out their best Halloween face on pumpkins of different sizes. If you opted for a fake pumpkin, sand down any rough edges. Take water tubes and fill them with water for the fresh flowers and place them inside the pumpkin.SHOP WATER TUBES 2 of 55 Spider Pumpkin This spooky spider pumpkin will look great on your front porch or anywhere in your house! Simply carve out a circle on the face of the pumpkin, spray paint it (inside and outside) black, and poke 12-13 holes along the edge where you carved. 24 of 55 Medusa Pumpkin Nothing's creepier than hair made of snakes, whether they're real or rubber. All you have to do is paint your pumpkin bright pink (or any color you'd like). SHOP CANDY CORN 9 of 55 Twisting Vines Pumpkin Here's a pro trick for nailing this glowing 3D effect: Use a lemon zester, clay loop, or linoleum cutter to carve into — but not through — the top layer of pumpkin skin. Finally, use whatever drill bits you'd like and get drilling! You can even add a candle inside if you want your pumpkin to glow.SHOP AWL 4 of 55 Pumpkin Diorama Add drama to your carved pumpkin by filling it with everything from reindeer moss and twigs to mini headstones. SHOP REINDEER MOSS 5 of 55 Spots and Dots Pumpkin It may look elaborate, but this polka-dot pattern is fairly easy. If you're looking for something basic, why not try the Snitch? Then, just make holes for the eyes and mouth, and pop in some giant faux flowers and scary fake teeth! SHOP FAKE TEETH 19 of 55 Ghost Pumpkin Topiary Carve out doors on three pumpkins and have happy (or scary) ghosts pop out. Start from the inside and pull the thread through the first hole, then through another hole directly across the pumpkin (poking the pumpkin from the outside) and tying it off inside.
